To the left of the device, it says '1: plug-in expansion cards to add software, e-books, databases, or even video files.' To the right, it says '2: snap-on peripherals like a portable keyboard, wireless modem, digital camera, or global positioning system.' Below the banner, there are three main sections: 'Customize with...' featuring 'Software Connection' with five stars and 'starring software'; 'Join the Palm Economy at...' featuring 'Palm OS' and '5th Annual PalmSource Developers Conference Feb 5-8, 2002'; and 'Stay in touch with...' featuring 'InSync Online'. On the right side, there's a 'special deals!' section listing 'ONLY @ Palm Store USA Only' and 'Palm m505 Handheld + Xircom Wireless LAN Module + Palm WLAN Software CD SAVE $198.99'.
